Easter: Unstuck

3/27/16

Bottom Line: The resurrection can change even the worst of sinners.

Welcome (You to Me, Me to You)

1. What was the best part of your Easter weekend?

Worship (Us to God)

1. Think back on your life, what are some of the things God has brought you through or changed in you? Share some of those things and then spend some time as a group thanking God for working in you.

Word (God to Us)

1. What has been the biggest change to your life so far? Career change, moving as a kid, getting married, etc.
2. When Paul had an encounter with the risen Jesus everything changed. Paul went from one the worst sinners to a faithful follower of Jesus. Read 1 Timothy 1:12-17... How have you seen Jesus change other's lives?
3. Paul says that God showed him "immense patience" for the benefit of others. How has God showed you patience? What effect has that had on you and those around you?
4. Read Romans 8:31-39... If there's no resurrection there's no hope for us. But if there is, then nothing can separate us from God. What hope do you find in the resurrection of Jesus? How has it changed your life?

5. Paul talked a lot about the power that the resurrection carries, that nothing has power over Jesus. While this is true a lot of times we forget and we miss what Jesus did and how it changes us. How does your life change when you stop living in this truth?
6. What do you need to do start and/or keep living in the truth of the resurrection? What holds you back from living like this?
7. Paul says in 1 Timothy that God considered him trustworthy and appointed him to service. Do you think God has appointed you for service? Why or why not? If yes what do you think that is?
8. What can we do as a group to remind each other of the power of the resurrection?

Response (Us to the World)

1. What do you need help to be reminded of? (Boldness at work, self-confidence, power over sin, etc) Commit as a group to remind each other that the resurrection gives us power and freedom over the previous listed things. Set reminders in your phone to send an encouraging text or challenge someone to be bold in their workplace throughout the week. Be in each others lives as a constant reminder this week.
