Skeptics Wanted: Why should I believe the Bible?

April 10th, 2016

Big Idea: The Bible has the power to change you and me, if we let it.

Welcome (You to Me, Me to You)

1. What are some things you believed when you were younger that you found out not to be true? (i.e. Santa, parents told you something to eat your veggies, etc...)

Worship (Us to God)

1. Have one person read Psalm 119:9-16 and an other read Psalm 119:19-24. Pray that God will show you the importance of His word tonight.

Word (God to Us)

1. How did the way you were raised shape the way you view the Bible?
2. What are some of the objections you have heard about the Bible? (i.e. The Bible isn't accurate, It's myth, or it's not socially relevant) What can you say to someone that has those objections?
3. What about the Bible troubles you the most? What about the Bible comforts you the most?
4. Read 2 Timothy 3:10-17... Based off this verse why is Paul saying scripture is so important?

5. Paul lists in this passage what scripture is useful for. How have you used scripture in your life? What area that Paul lists do you struggle to us scripture in?
6. Read Hebrews 4:12 and Acts 17:10-12. Based of these two passages and the previous passage in 2 Timothy, how did the early church view the Bible?
7. How does our attitude and beliefs effect how we see and treat the Bible?
8. How has the Bible changed the way that you live your life? What can you do to share that impact with those around you?

Response (Us to the World)

1. Split into group of 3. Think of one person in your life that needs the love of God in their lives. Share with your group and then pray for each other that God will open a door to have a conversation with them this week.
