It's Complicated: #relationshipgoals

May 22nd, 2016

Welcome (You to Me, Me to You)

1. What was your worst date? What made it so bad?

Worship (Us to God)

1. Read Micah 6:6-8... Israel was caught up in all the things they could “do” for God. But they had forgot the main thing that was required of them. Micah lays it out for them, “do what is right, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God.” Spend some time praying, lay out the desires of your heart and pray that God will make Him the desire of your heart.

Word (God to Us)

1. How does the world view dating? What do they think the purpose of dating is?
2. Read Ruth 3:7-13... From a worldly standpoint, Ruth was a desperate widow in a foreign land, protected only by an older widow and reliant entirely on the kindness of strangers. When do you think Ruth’s need for redemption became clear to her? How might you have felt in a similar situation?
3. How did Ruth trust Boaz? What did she do that showed that trust?
4. What do you think it cost Boaz to redeem Naomi and Ruth? How does this demonstrate love?

5. What principles can we get from the story of Ruth that apply to dating relationships? What principles can we apply to our marriages?
6. How does the story of Ruth give us hope in our relationships? How can we use our relationships to show the same hope to others?
7. What difficulties might we run into if we decide to follow God’s plan for dating/relationships?

Response (Us to the World)

1. What can you do to live this out? If you have kids that are dating how can you help them live this out?
