It's Complicated: #putaringonit

May 29th, 2016

Welcome (You to Me, Me to You)

1. What is the best prank you have pulled on someone you were dating or married too?

Worship (Us to God)

1. We all come in tonight with many worries and anxieties. Work, family, school, and all sorts of pressure are weighing on us. Let's take a moment to focus on God before we begin. Read Matthew 6:25-34... Spend some time thanking God for caring so much about us and give him your worries.

Word (God to Us)

1. How does the world view marriage? What do they do that shows their view? What does the world say is the purpose of marriage?
2. Read Ephesians 5:21-33... In this verse what does God value in marriage? What are our marriages supposed to point too? How does that compare to the world's view?
3. Our marriages are supposed to point others to Jesus. Our marriages show the relationships between Jesus and the Church. What would need to change in your marriage for that to change? If you aren't married yet, how does that change your mindset about marriage?

4. What does it look like for a husband to love his wife like Christ loves the church on a regular basis? What does it look like for a wife to respect her husband on a regular basis?
5. What kind of impact would a marriage that follows God plan have on others? What impact would it have on the husband/wife?
6. We are all influenced by the world we live in. Our view on marriage is tainted by what the world says. What would it take for you to shift your view from the world's view of marriage to God's view of marriage?
7. How can we as a Life Group support each other's marriages and help each other hold God's view of marriage?

Response (Us to the World)

1. How can we set the example for what a godly marriage looks like to our kids, neighbors, and coworkers? If you are not married how can you live out what a healthy view of marriage looks like to those around you?
